

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES
OF THE Circulating Library.

I.—THAT the Library be open for delivering out and receiving books every day in the week (excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, and Fast and Thanksgiving days by proclamation), from ten o'clock in the morning till half-past nine in the evening.

II.—That every Member shall produce his Admission Ticket on taking out or returning a book.

III.—That no Member shall have more than one volume at a time, except in the case of the plates belonging to any subject being in a separate volume, or the Member's residence being two miles or upwards from the Institution; when two volumes may be taken out on paying the usual deposit; but both volumes must be returned at the expiration of the time allowed for one.

IV.—That two weeks be allowed for reading an octavo or smaller volume, three weeks for a quarto, and four weeks for a folio, including the days of delivery and return; and if the day of return happen on a day when the Institution is not open, the day after to be considered as the day of return.

V.—That if a book be not returned on the day appointed, the Member shall pay a fine of three pence for every day the book shall be detained; and if kept above seven days, sixpence a day; and if not returned within fourteen days after the day fixed for its return, application shall be made to the Member for the same, and if not then returned, the Member shall pay the value thereof, or of the set of books to which it belongs; and in default of such payment he shall cease to be a Member of the Institution.

VI.—That a Member lending a book to any person shall pay a fine of five shillings.

VII.—That if a book be written in, or otherwise damaged, the Member in whose hands the book was at the time shall pay the value of the book, or replace the same, at the discretion of the Committee.

VIII.—That every Member, on taking a book out of the Library, shall pay a deposit of five shillings; except he shall have made a donation or donations to the Institution to the value of ten shillings or upwards, or have been a subscribing Member three years uninterruptedly, which entitles him to take out Books from the Circulating Library deposit free.

IX.—That all fines be paid to the Librarian within one week after being incurred; and in default thereof, the names of the Members incurring the same shall be exhibited in the Reading Room of the Institution, and they shall cease to be Members thereof.

X.—That none of the books marked in the Catalogue as books of reference shall be circulated.

XI.—That proper books be kept for entering the books taken out of the Library, and for registering the Members' applications for books to be taken out.

XII.—That if a book be not taken out by the Member first applying for it within three days after the day fixed for its return, the Member next in rotation shall be entitled to it.

XIII.—That a Member, on returning a book, may take the same again out of the Library, if no application for it has been previously made.

XIV.—That no new works be circulated until after they have remained in the Library three months.

XV.—That for the purpose of enabling the Committee to ascertain the state of the Library, and the condition of the books therein, the circulation of books shall cease for one week four times in the year, such weeks to commence on the last Wednesdays in February, May, August, and November; that all books must be returned into the Library on or before the above days; and that any Member detaining a book after the specified days shall be fined sixpence for every day it is so detained.

Regulations

TO BE OBSERVED BY MEMBERS FREQUENTING THE READING ROOM.

THE Committee of Managers, in compliance with the 10th Section of the "Rules," have adopted the following Regulations for the conduct and management of the READING ROOM, which they trust will be strictly attended to by the Members :—

I.—That the Room shall be open for the accommodation of the Members every day (Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, and Fast and Thanksgiving days by proclamation excepted,) from Nine o'Clock in the Morning till Ten at Night.

II.—That no Member shall be entitled to enter the Reading Room without producing his card.

III.—That Catalogues of the books contained in the Library be placed in the Reading Room, and that, in order to afford increased facility of reference, the Catalogues be arranged both alphabetically and scientifically.

IV.—Every Member requiring a book for use in the Reading Room, shall enter the title of the same, with his signature, in a register kept for that purpose ; and the librarian, or person acting for him, shall countersign the entry when the book is returned into his possession.

V.—That no Member be allowed to write in any of the books belonging to the Library, or to deface or injure them in any other manner ; but that every Member shall be responsible for whatever damage any volume may sustain while in his possession, or for its loss, if not returned agreeably to the fourth regulation.

VI.—That for the general convenience and accommodation of the Members, it is particularly requested that they will avoid entering into any discourse, dispute, or discussion, as such conduct on the part of any of the Members must necessarily interrupt and distract the attention of others.

VII.—That no Member be allowed to partake of any refreshments in the Reading Room.

VIII.—That a book be provided for the purpose of affording the Members an opportunity of entering any remarks or suggestions which they may wish to submit to the consideration of the Committee, relative to the conduct and management of the Reading Room ; and that this book be laid before the Committee every Monday evening.
